WILLIS-MCGILL RADIAL MURK.

At a late hour yesterday afternoon

Mr. W. H. Bell was driven from a house on Main Street, receiving a severely dislocated arm, and other painful injuries. He was taken to the office of Dr. P. H. Harmer and given medical attention and is resting well today. It appears that a hot stove, allowing the shingles to fall to the ground which frightened the horse and in trying to hold him Mr. Bell was thrown to the ground with great force.

Fortunately the young lady escaped without injury.

GREATLY INCREASED VALUES.

the bolls are mature and as a result it is falling to the ground, and a part, if not all of what little is made, is likely to be ruined.

Turner Crenshaw was in town from Steep Hollow. He brought in with him one of the prettiest 15 months old colts in the county. It was coal
